BURIED TREASURE.

THE BANNER learned from Mr. J. D. Affleck, of Gay Hill, who was in the city Monday, that considerable excitement has been created up there by the unearthing of some buried treasure on the Copeland farm. The German tenant noticed a few days ago some small stakes near a large live oak tree that stood on the inside of the field near the public road, but paid no particular attention to it as he thought perhaps some one had staked off a grave there, and in passing by kicked one of the stakes down, but noticed that the next time he passed it had been replaced. Sunday a Mexican was seen leaving the spot with a sack thrown across his back that seemed to be as much as he could carry, and an examination of the spot revealed the fact that an excavation about two feet deep had been made and a stout box taken therefrom and emptied of what might have been, and for all anybody knows was gold coin, perhaps some of old Santa Anna's buried treasure.
